

Publication: The Straits Times , p A02
Date: 19 August 2017
Headline: Social enterprise festival returns

Social enterprise festival returns

Singapore's only social enterprise festival returns for a second run today. The FestivalForGood will showcase vibrant social enterprises and celebrate their innovation and passion to do good through their businesses. The event, which will also feature a market and food and beverage stalls, will be opened by President Tony Tan Keng Yam today at noon at lyf@SMU on Stamford Road.

Source: The Straits Times @ Singapore Press Holdings Limited. Permission required for reproduction