Manama, Bahrain: The Central Bank of Bahrain (CBB) received today a group of students from the Singapore Management University, during their visit to the Kingdom of Bahrain.

The students were welcomed by the CBB's Director of Islamic Financial Institutions Supervision. Then the CBB's Advisor of Islamic Financial Services Development delivered a presentation on the banking services rendered by the Islamic banks indicating the role of the Central Bank of Bahrain as the supervisory and the regulatory body of the licensed banks in the Kingdom.

The visit ended with a visit to the CBB's Currency Museum. On the occasion of this visit, Dr. Huda Al Maskati, Executive Director - Corporate Services said, "The CBB welcomes students from many international universities on an annual basis and we are always happy to share with them our insights into the industry and the regulations and standards that the CBB has adopted as industry regulators".
