

Publication: The Straits Times, p C6

Date: 28 February 2014

Headline: Behavioural Sciences Institute Conference 2014: Liveability in Singapore: Social & Behavioural Issues

BEHAVIOURAL SCIENCES INSTITUTE CONFERENCE 2014: LIVEABILITY IN SINGAPORE: SOCIAL & BEHAVIOURAL ISSUES

Get valuable perspectives and an understanding of issues related to Singapore's liveability and the potential application of it at this conference by the Behavioural Sciences Institute of Singapore Management University. The speakers include Tommy Koh, ambassador-at-large, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Han Fook Kwang, Managing Editor (English & Malay Newspapers), Singapore Press Holdings, and Gerard Ee, Chairman, Council for Third Age and Public Transport Council.

Where: Orchard Hotel, Grand Ballroom, Orchard Road

MRT: Orchard When: March 10, Info: Register by today.

For details on timing and pricing, go to bsi.smu.edu.sg/bsi-conference-2014. E-mail bsi@smu.edu.sg