

BY THE
NUMBERS

3.05%

The rate of inflation that consumers here expect for the year ahead, according to a Singapore Management University survey done last month. This is down from the 3.52 per cent recorded last December and is the lowest since the quarterly survey started in September 2011.