Singapore honours Ratan Tata

18 Mar 2014

Singapore, 17 March: Mr Ratan Tata was today conferred with a honorary degree of Doctor of Business by a Singaporean university for his achievements as a visionary entrepreneur and a societal leader. The honorary degree was jointly presented to Mr Tata, chairman emeritus of the Tata Group, by Singapore's minister for education Heng Sweet Keat and Singapore Management University president Arnoud De Meyer.

The ceremony, which was followed by a dialogue with Mr Tata, was attended by about 100 guests, including India's High Commissioner to Singapore Ms Vijay Thakur Singh.
