VietClimb Gym to build bouldering team

VietClimb Gym calls on climbers to form a Viet Nam team for the Gravigal 2013 – an annual bouldering competition organised by the Singapore Management University Climb Team.

Bouldering is a style of rock climbing undertaken without a rope and normally limited to very short climbs over a crash pad (called a bouldering mat) so that a fall will not result in serious injury.

Taking place in the Singapore City Square Mall from January 11-13, the main objective is to promote climbing. The event will provide challenging bouldering problems.
