

SMU signs MOU with French business school

THE Institute of Service Excellence at Singapore Management University (ISES) signed a memorandum of understanding with the Institute for Strategic Innovation and Services (ISIS) of France's ESSEC Business School yesterday to jointly develop executive education programmes, teaching and research information exchanges and the organisation of international study trips.