

SMU, Pudong institute in research tie-up

SINGAPORE Management University's Institute of Service Excellence and the Pudong Innovation Research Institute signed a letter of agreement yesterday to develop a user satisfaction measure for services in Shanghai's Zhangjiang Hi-Tech Park together. Research findings will be used to develop the park's public services and improve its competitiveness. The two-year programme ends in April 2015.