

Publication: The Economic Times

Date: 29 July 2013

Headline: IIM-L signs MoU with Singapore's leading management university

IIM-L signs MoU with Singapore's leading management university

By PTI | 29 Jul, 2013, 03.49PM IST

LUCKNOW: A Memorandum of Understanding was signed between the Indian Institute of Management, Lucknow and Singapore Management University to mutually support each other in the pursuit of excellence in global business education.

The MoU was signed by provost and deputy president of SMU, Prof Rajendra Srivastava and director, IIM-L, Devi Singh.

"Both IIM Lucknow and SMU would closely collaborate for research, executive education programmes and faculty and student exchange programme," Singh told reporters here.

Another important feature of this collaboration would be to explore designing, developing and delivering of joint programmes leading to certifications from both SMU and IIM-L, he said.

The director said that as the world gets globally connected, unification of professional education enriches the process of learning and reaches a greater potential.

"With globalisation comes in the opportunities that have been created in various domains of learning. Research cannot be confined to geographies. In order to innovate new measures of teaching and learning, we today join hands with one of the Asias's leading institution SMU to share our expertise and learn together," he added.