Singapore Management University (SMU), after signing six agreements with Indian Universities, is now ready to sign an MoU with IIM Lucknow which is part of its plan to spread executive education programme in the country.

Various higher educational programmes shall be launched in India from this month by SMU. This had been said by Rajendra K Srivastava, SMU's deputy president for academic affairs.

Six MoUs have been signed by SMU with Indian Institute of Management, Rohtak; Indian Institute of Technology (IIT), Kanpur; Indian Institute of Foreign Trade (IIFT), New Delhi; Bombay Stock Exchange Institute, Mumbai and Birla Institute of Management Technology (BIMTECH), Noida.

Another MoU shall be signed by SMU with IIM Lucknow for a programme in executive education which shall be in Delhi.

SMU shall also be conducting a course with the Bombay Stock Exchange Institute.
