NOT ENOUGH S'POREAN
FACULTY MEMBERS

NOMINATED Member of Parliament Eugene Tan said he was "rather disappointed" by the low numbers of Singaporeans who are faculty members in the country's four autonomous universities – in particular, those who are on tenure and non-tenure tracks.

Senior Minister of State for Education Indranee Rajah said that in the National University of Singapore (NUS) and Nanyang Technological University (NTU), about one in four faculty members on the tenure track is Singaporean.

Singapore Management University's (SMU's) figure is one in six; and Singapore University of Technology and Design's (SUTD's) figure is one in three. For the non-tenure track, about half of all faculty members in NUS, NTU and SMU are Singaporean, Ms Indranee said. SUTD currently does not have any non-tenure-track faculty members.
