

HOMEMADE

A component of the Singapore Night Festival, this gig features indie mainstays Obedient Wives Club and Pleasantry, as well as campy band Tiramisu. Rounding up the formidable line-up is the debut performance by The Electric Symphony Project, a 23-piece rock orchestra created specially for the festival, touted as Singapore's first and led by scene veteran and soul/rock virtuoso Syed Ahmad (below) from the Stoned Revivals and Bloco Singapura.

Where: Singapore Management University
Green, Bras Basah Road MRT: Bras Basah
When: Today, 7.30pm - midnight
Admission: Free

