

PM Lee shares wefie moment with Paralympic champion

Prime Minister Lee Hsien Loong taking a wefie with five-time Paralympic gold medallist Yip Pin Xiu in Parliament yesterday.

Yip, 29, will be feted for her achievements – she won two golds at the Tokyo Games – with the inaugural President’s Award for Inspiring Achievement, Minister for Culture, Community and Youth Edwin Tong announced in Parliament yesterday.

The session also saw Parliament passing a motion to congratulate and honour Singapore’s athletes who competed at the Olympics and Paralympics in Tokyo.

PM Lee said in a Facebook post: “Our athletes adapted, persevered, and gave their best for Singapore. They have shown us that dreams are worth striving for.”
