

Warm welcome home for Singapore sprint queen

Singapore sprint queen Shanti Pereira received a big hug from her uncle Bernard Pereira minutes after arriving at Changi Airport Terminal 1 on Thursday afternoon. The 27-year-old, who ended Singapore's 49-year wait for an Asian Games track and field gold medal with her win in the 200m in Hangzhou, China, was greeted by a crowd of around 70 people comprising family, friends, sports officials and fans.
