

Sports stars on a grand stage

Team Singapore athletes took centre stage in Parliament on Oct 16 as Minister for Culture, Community and Youth Edwin Tong moved a motion to honour those who competed at the 2024 Paris Olympic and Paralympic Games. Prime Minister Lawrence Wong met the athletes at Parliament House after the motion and is seen here taking a selfie with (clockwise from left) MP Denise Phua, para-shooter Daniel Chan, Olympic bronze-winning kitefoiler Maximilian Maeder, shooter Teh Xiu Hong, Mr Tong, seven-time Paralympic swimming champion Yip Pin Xiu and Paralympian Jeralyn Tan, who won a silver medal in boccia.
