

EFMD Welcomes 29 New Members during 2025 General Assemblies

Following the latest EFMD Membership Review Committee, we are proud to welcome 29 new institutions into the EFMD community, 26 business schools and three corporate organisations. The ratification of the new members took place during the recent 2025 EFMD & EFMD Global Network General Assemblies, held on 2 June in Munich.

Representing a diversity of geographies and sectors, these institutions share a collective commitment to academic excellence, international collaboration, and the transformation of business education for a more inclusive and sustainable future.

“Welcoming new members strengthens our shared commitment to advancing management education in a complex, interconnected world,” said Eric Cornuel, President of EFMD. “At EFMD, we believe in fostering a learning community where ideas are shared, practices are challenged, and meaningful relationships are built. These partnerships help us rethink management education as a force for positive impact.”

Whether through participation in our accreditation systems, professional development offerings, or international conferences and peer networks, we look forward to supporting each new member as they engage with the full portfolio of EFMD’s activities.

EFMD is also delighted to recognise as Honorary Members two individuals whose extraordinary careers have left a lasting mark on global business education. We are pleased to announce the appointment of:

- Prof. Arnoud De Meyer, Emeritus Professor & Former President, Singapore Management University, Singapore
- Prof. Peter Moizer, Emeritus Professor & Former Executive Dean, Leeds University Business School, University of Leeds, United Kingdom

These honorary memberships recognise decades of academic leadership, global engagement, and exceptional service to the management education profession. Both have contributed significantly to strengthening international quality standards and advancing the EFMD mission.

The addition of these new institutional and honorary members is a reflection of our growing and evolving global family. It is also a reminder of the collective potential we harness when diverse institutions and individuals come together to learn, collaborate, and drive positive change.

To our newest members: Welcome, we are honoured to have you with us and look forward to shaping the future of management education together.

Should you wish to connect with our new members, do not hesitate to contact us at membership@efmdglobal.org. For a direct link to the institutions' websites, please consult the complete list of EFMD members.
